

In July, Jenny's family went to the beaches of Italy for the summer vacations.

...will she find
me here?

Another of Jenny's teeth was loose,
and she couldn't help thinking,
"What if it falls in Italy?
Will the Tooth Fairy know the way?"

Jenny's fun time at the beach almost made her forget about her loose tooth,

until it got stuck on a deliciously crunchy slice of pizza!
“OHHH?! Will the Tooth Fairy come tonight?”
Jenny wondered.

That night, Jenny carefully put her tooth under a glass and, hopeful, went to sleep.

“The Tooth Fairy did come!”
Jenny happily exclaimed the following morning;
under the glass was a shiny coin.

Jenny had never seen one like it before,
and went to ask her parents:

“It is a Euro,” was the answer, “the money of Italy.”

“OH, COOL!”
